

Traditional Worship Leader

If you are interested in applying for this position please email Tami Daniel, the Personnel Committee chair at jobs@fbcmocksville.org to learn more.

First Baptist Church of Mocksville is looking for a music worship leader for our Traditional Service at 11 am Sunday's.

The music leader would be responsible for:

- * Coordinate with the pastor on designing worship services
 - * Set order of worship, responsible for coordinating with Office Administrator to print order of service
 - * Coordinate with Audio/Visual team
 - * Coordinate and communicate selection of songs with staff and accompanist
 - * Organize, develop and lead our adult choir (we currently do not have a choir, but desire to have one as a regular part of our worship services)
 - * Coordinating special music
 - * Coordinate and lead any special community & holiday services during the year- including special church events & holiday celebrations and working with local churches in planning & implementing special community services during the year.
- * This is a part-time position and would call for about 10 hours per week

Qualifications:

- * Be a born-again Christian desiring to serve God through music and worship
- * Be a person willing and desiring to care for our congregation
- * Ability to read music
- * Be in agreement with our "What Unites Us" statements
<https://www.fbcmocksville.org/what-unites-us>
- * Be a team player, willing to work with other staff, volunteers and congregation in a positive and encouraging manner, keeping unity with the pastoral staff and congregation.

Preferred:

- * Ability to play piano or organ
- * Ability to organize and lead or lead volunteers for children's music program